The fourth council of Lateran, Can. 21, ordains, "that every one of the faithful of both sexes, after they come to the years of discretion, shall, in private, faithfully confess all their sins, at least once a year, to their own pastor, and take care to fulfil, to the best of their power, the penance enjoined them; receiving reverently, at least at Easter, the sacrament of the Eucharist, unless, perhaps, by the counsel of their pastor, for some reasonable cause, they judge it proper to abstain from it for a time; otherwise, let them be excluded from the church while living, and when they die, be deprived of Christian burial.

MANNER OF BAPTIZING A CHILD IN DANGER OF DEATH BY LAY PERSONS.

Take natural or common water, pour it on the head of the child, and while you are pouring it say the following words: I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

THE CHRISTIAN'S DAILY EXERCISE OF MORNING AND NIGHT PRAYER.

RISING from bed, make the sign ✝ of the cross, saying, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen."—and offer yourself to God—then dressing yourself modestly, acknowledge the goodness of God, who gives you this day to labor in it, for the salvation of your soul; and consider this day may be your last. When dressed, place yourself in the presence of God, in a respectful posture, on bended knees, and blessing yourself, adore him with the most profound respect; give him thanks for his benefits to you, especially for having watched over you during the night; and join with all the angels and saints in blessing and praising his holy name.

Afterwards recollect yourself, if you have offended God during the night, and what were the sins you committed the day before; and with an humble and contrite heart, begging God's forgiveness of them and of all past transgressions, firmly resolve not to offend him any more, and earnestly beg his assistance, to spend the present day in his love and service, and to guard you particularly against your predominant passions and those vices, temptations, and failings, to which you find yourself most addicted.

Then offering to God your body and soul, with all your thoughts, words, and actions; and begging his blessing on them, devoutly recite the acts of faith, hope, and charity, the Lord's Prayer, the Hail Mary, the Apostles' Creed, and whatever other prayers you are accustomed to say. You should also pray for your friends and enemies, and for the living and dead, begging grace, mercy, and salvation for all mankind: and conclude your morning prayer by invoking the intercession and protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary; and by recommending yourself to your Angel Guardian, and to those particular saints to whom you have special devotion.

Every Christian who has at heart his salvation, and is desirous to please God, ought, if he has time and opportunity, to meditate every morning, or at a convenient hour in the day, on his last end, or on the passion of Christ, or on some pious and serious subject: and to hear mass with all possible attention and reverence; because of all religious duties, the sacrifice of the mass is that which gives most glory to God, and is at the same time most profitable to us. The reading of books of true Christian piety and sound morality is also earnestly to be recommended, as very conducive to spiritual improvement.

And in order to sanctify each day, and the good works of it, consider that all things, even your most secret thoughts and actions, are naked and open to the eyes of God; and that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall render an account for it in the day of judgment. Heb. iv. 13, and Matt. xii. 36. Therefore walk with the greatest circumspection in the presence of God, frequently in the day thinking of him, raising your heart to him, and offering yourself and actions, to his honour and glory.

NIGHT PRAYER.

If it be so necessary a duty to begin the day by prayer, it is of the utmost consequence to conclude it also by prayer; the graces received during the day, and special protection you stand in need of against the dangers of the night, should engage you to humble yourself before God in prayer every night, which necessary duty is never to be omitted, and should be always most religiously performed, and in the same manner, and with the same dispositions as in the morning.

Every night, therefore, before you go to bed, place yourself on your knees in the presence of God; and begging his blessing, by making the sign ✝ of the cross on yourself, adore his infinite majesty; return him thanks for all his mercies to you, especially for his gracious protection over you during the day; and invite the whole court of heaven and all the creatures of God, to bless his goodness and to praise his holy name.

Then consider attentively, how you spent the day; and if in the course of it you diligently complied with your duty in every respect: you are therefore to examine yourself carefully on your thoughts, words, actions, and omissions; and particularly on the obligations of your state in life, and on those vices, passions, and evil habits to which you are most addicted.

When you have brought to mind all the sins and omissions of the day with an humble and contrite heart implore forgiveness of them, and of all your transgressions; and firmly resolve, with God's assistance, not to offend him any more; and cautiously to avoid every occasion of sin. Then offering yourself to God, earnestly beseech him to enable you to practise those particular virtues and good works, which are most necessary to you, and to preserve you from sin, and all dangers during the night; devoutly recite the acts of faith, hope and charity, and the others prayers as in the morning, or any other form of prayer you are accustomed to say at night.

The examination of conscience is strongly recommended as a very important Christian duty, and is one of the most profitable and effectual means to avoid sin, and to acquire virtue; wherefore all persons who have at heart their salvation, and are truly desirous to please God, will constantly and diligently attend to the examination of conscience every night.

Prayer said in common, that is, by many together, is certainly more acceptable to God, and more beneficial than prayer which is offered in private by one individual alone; and on this principal is chiefly grounded the pious and edifying practice in many families, of joining together in prayer every night; and it is most earnestly to be wished that every Catholic family should adopt it.

The many signal blessings which God has bestowed on those families in which prayers are regularly said in common, should engage every head of a family to introduce and establish so laudable a custom; particularly at night, when all in the family may be assembled with greater convenience. "Where there are two or three gathered together in my name, says Christ, "there am I in the midst of them." Matt. xviii. 20.

A PRAYER TO OUR ANGEL GUARDIAN.

V. He hath given his angels charge over thee.

R. To keep thee in all thy ways.

O Holy Angel! to whose care God, in his mercy, hath committed me; thou who assistest me in my wants, who consolest me in my afflictions, who supportest me when dejected, and who constantly obtainest for me new favors; I return thee now most sincere and humble thanks; and I conjure thee, O amiable Guide! to continue still thy care; to defend me against my enemies; to remove from me the occasions of sin, to obtain for me a docility to thy holy inspirations; to protect me, in particular, at the hour of my death; and then conduct me to the mansions of eternal repose. Amen.

ACTS OF CONTRITION, FAITH, HOPE AND CHARITY.

✝ IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY GHOST. AMEN.

A PRAYER BEFORE THE ACTS.

LET US PRAY.

O Almighty and Eternal God, grant unto us an increase of faith, hope and charity; and that we may obtain what thou hast promised, make us to love and practice what thou commandest, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AN ACT OF CONTRITION.

O my God! I am heartily sorry for having offended thee, and I detest my sins most sincerely, not only because by them I have lost all right to heaven, and have deserved the everlasting punishment of hell, but especially because they displease thee, my God, who art so deserving of all my love, for thy infinite goodness and most amiable perfections; and I firmly purpose, by thy holy grace, never more to offend thee.

AN ACT OF FAITH.

O my God! I firmly believe that thou art one only God, the Creator and Sovereign Lord of Heaven and Earth, infinitely great and infinitely good; I firmly believe that in thee, one only God, there are three Divine Persons, really distinct, and equal in all things, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost; I firmly believe in Jesus Christ, God the Son who became Man; was conceived by the Holy Ghost and was born of the Virgin Mary; suffered and died on a cross to redeem and save us; arose the third day from the dead, and ascended into heaven; and will come at the end of the world to judge mankind, and will reward the good with eternal happiness, and condemn the wicked to the everlasting pains of Hell. I believe these and all other articles which the holy Roman Catholic Church proposes to our belief, because thou, my God, the infallible Truth, hast revealed them; and thou hast commanded us to hear the Church which is the pillar and the ground of Truth. In this faith I am firmly resolved, by thy holy grace, to live and die Matt. xviii. 17. and 1 Tim. iii. 15.

AN ACT OF HOPE.

O my God! who hast graciously promised every blessing, even heaven itself, through Jesus Christ, to those who keep thy commandments; relying on thy infinite power, goodness, and mercy, and on thy sacred promises, to which thou art always faithful, I confidently hope to obtain pardon of all my sins, grace to serve thee faithfully in this life, by doing the good works thou hast commanded, and which, with thy assistance, I will perform; and eternal happiness in the next, through my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

AN ACT OF CHARITY.

OR OF THE LOVE OF GOD AND OF OUR NEIGHBOURS

O my God! I love thee with my whole heart and soul, and above all things; because thou art infinitely good and perfect, and most worthy of all my love; and for thy sake, I love my neighbour as myself. Mercifully grant, O my God! that having loved thee on earth, I may love and enjoy thee for ever in heaven. Amen.

A PRAYER TO BE SAID BEFORE MASS.

LET US PRAY.

O MERCIFUL Father, who didst so love the world, as to give up for our redemption thy beloved Son, who in obedience to thee, and for us sinners, humbled himself even unto the death of the cross, and continues to offer himself daily, by the ministry of his priests, for the living and the dead; we humbly beseech thee, that, penetrated with a lively faith, we may always assist with the utmost devotion and reverence, at the oblation of his most precious body and blood, which is made at Mass and thereby be made partakers of the Sacrifice, which he consummated on Calvary.

In union with thy holy Church and its minister, and invoking the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and all the Angels and Saints, we now offer the adorable Sacrifice of the Mass to thy honour and glory, to acknowledge thy infinite perfections, thy supreme dominion over all thy creatures, our entire subjection to thee, and total dependence on thy gracious Providence, and in thanksgiving for all thy benefits and for the remission of our sins.

We offer it for the propagation of the Catholic faith, for our most holy Father the Pope, for our Archbishop, (or Bishop,) and for all the Pastors and Clergy of thy Holy Church, that they may direct the faithful in the way of salvation! for the King (or the Queen), and all who are in high stations—that we may lead a quiet and holy life; for peace and good will among all states and people; for the necessities of mankind, and particularly for the congregation here present, to obtain all blessings we stand in need of in this life, everlasting happiness in the next, and eternal rest to the faithful departed.

And as Jesus Christ so ordained when he instituted at his last supper this wonderful mystery of his power, wisdom and goodness; we offer the Mass in grateful remembrance of all he has done and suffered for the love of us, making special commemoration of his bitter passion and Death, and of his glorious Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven—Vouchsafe, O Almighty and Eternal God! (for to thee alone so great a sacrifice is due,) graciously to accept it, for these and all other purposes, agreeable to thy holy will. And to render it the more pleasing, we offer it to thee through the same Jesus Christ, thy beloved Son, our Lord and Saviour, our High Priest and victim; and in the name of the most Holy Trinity, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost—to whom be honour, praise, and glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

SHORTER ACTS OF FAITH, HOPE AND CHARITY.

AN ACT OF FAITH.

O my God, I most firmly believe in thee and all thou hast revealed to thy Holy Catholic Church, because thou art truth itself, who neither canst deceive nor be deceived.

AN ACT OF HOPE.

O my God, relying on thy promises, and upon the merits of Jesus Christ, my Saviour, I most firmly hope in thee, and trust that thou wilt grant me grace to observe thy commandments in this world, and reward me in the next.

AN ACT OF LOVE OR CHARITY.

O my God, who art worthy of all my love, and infinite in every perfection, I love thee with my whole heart; and I love my neighbour as myself for the love of thee.

SHORT PRAYERS FOR CONFESSION AND COMMUNION.

PRAYER BEFORE CONFESSION AND EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE.

Behold me, O Lord, prostrate at thy sacred feet, in order to declare unto thee in the person of thy minister all the sins of which I am guilty. Grant me grace to know them, to confess them all with sincerity, and to detest them with my whole heart.

PRAYER AFTER CONFESSION.

I am no longer thy enemy, O my God. By the virtue of the sacrament which I have just received, thou hast healed the wounds of my soul; thou hast received me into thy favour, thou hast revived the merits of my good works, which were dead through sin, and thou hast changed into a temporal punishment the eternal damnation which my sins deserved. Grant me, O God, the gift of perseverance in thy service. Ah! let me rather die a thousand deaths than offend thee again.

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION.

Divine Jesus, although thou art not visible to the eyes of my body I believe it is thyself thou art about to give me Alas, I am very unworthy of so great a favour after having dishonoured thee so often, but thy infinite goodness overcomes my rebellious, obdurate heart, makes me weep over my sins, and fills me with love for thee, and with the most ardent desire of receiving thee. Come, then, O Saviour of the world, purify my soul from all its stains and establish thy throne therein forever.

A PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION.

It is then true, O Redeemer of mankind, that thou dwellest within me, and that I am in possession of thy body and blood, soul and divinity. Receive, O Lord, my most profound adoration, which I unite with that which the Angels and Saints render thee in heaven. O what love, what gratitude, can ever equal the favour which thou hast bestowed on me! Accept, Divine Jesus the offering of all I have, and of all I am; dispose thereof according to thy good will and pleasure, and grant me grace never to offend thee more.

PRAYER BEFORE CATECHISM.

✝ IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY GHOST. AMEN. BLESSED BE THE HOLY AND UNDIVIDED TRINITY, NOW AND FOREVER, AMEN.

Come, O Holy Spirit! fill the hearts of thy faithful, and kindle in them the fire of thy love.

V. Send forth thy spirit and they will be created.—R And thou wilt renew the face of the earth.

LET US PRAY.

O God, who by the light of the Holy Ghost didst instruct the hearts of the faithful, give us by this same Holy Spirit, a love and relish of what is right and just, and a constant enjoyment of his comforts through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who, with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth one God forever and ever. Amen

AFTER CATECHISM.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, we beseech thee through thy Holy cross and passion, through thy death and glorious resurrection, be gracious and merciful unto us and all sinners. O Jesus! hear us; O Jesus! save us; O Jesus! have mercy upon us, and strengthen our faith, increase our hope and make us perfect in the love of God, and of our neighbour; that in this life we may serve thee alone in true justice and for ever extol and praise thee with all the saints in heaven

LESSON V.

ON SIN AND PURGATORY.

Q. What is sin?

A. Any wilful thought, word, deed, or omission, contrary to the Law of God.

Q. What is original sin?

A. The sin we inherit from our first parents, and in which we were conceived and born Children of wrath.—Ephes. ii. 3.

Q. Who were our first parents?

A. Adam and Eve, the first man and woman.

Q. What is mortal sin?

A. A grievous offence or transgression against the law of God.

Q. Why is it called mortal?

A. Because it kills the soul, by depriving it of its true life, which is sanctifying grace; and because it brings everlasting death and damnation on the soul.

Q. Does venial sin deprive the soul of sanctifying grace and deserve everlasting punishment?

A. No; but it hurts the soul, by lessening its love for God, and by disposing to mortal sin. The Scripture says, He that contemneth small things shall fall by little and little. Ecclus. xix. 1.

Q. Is it a great misfortune to fall into mortal sin?

A. It is the greatest of all misfortunes.

Q. Where shall they go who die in mortal sin?

Q. What is Purgatory?

A. A place of punishment in the other life, where some souls suffer for a time before they can go to Heaven.

Q. Can the souls in Purgatory be relieved by our prayers and other good works?

A. Yes; being children of God, and still members of the church, they share in the communion of saints; and the Scripture says, it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins. 2 Mac. xii. 46.

Q. Is it sufficient for salvation to be members of the true church?

A. No; we must avoid evil and do good.

Q. What good shall I do that I may have life everlasting?

A. If thou wilt enter into life, says Christ, keep the commandments. St. Matt. xix. 17.

Q. What commandments am I to keep?

7. Thou shalt not steal.

8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife.

10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's goods.—Exod. xx.

Q. Is it necessary to keep all, and every one of the ten commandments?

A. Yes; the scripture says, whosoever shall offend in one is become guilty of all: that is, the observance of the other commandments will not avail him to salvation. James ii. 10.

Q. To how many commandments may the ten be reduced?

A. To these two principal commandments, which are the two great precepts of charity: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself; This do and thou shalt live. St. Luke x.; St. Mark xii.

Q. And who is my neighbour? St. Luke x. 29.

A. Mankind of every description, and without any exception of persons, even those who injure us, or differ from us in religion.

Q. How am I to love my neighbour as myself?

A. As you would, says Christ, that men should do to you, do you also to them in like manner. St. Luke vi. 31.

Q. What particular duties are required of me by that rule?

A. Never to injure your neighbour by word or deed, in his person, property, or character, to wish well to him, and to pray for him; and always to assist him, as far as you are able, in his spiritual and corporal necessities.

Q. Am I obliged also to love my enemies?

A. Most certainly. Love your enemies, says Christ; do good to them that hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them that persecute and calumniate you. St. Luke vi.; St. Matt. v.

Q. Are there any other commandments besides the ten commandments of God?

A. There are the commandments or precepts of the Church, which are chiefly six.

Q. Say the six commandments of the Church?

5. To contribute to the support of our pastors.

6. Not to solemnize marriage at forbidden times, nor to marry persons within the forbidden degrees of kindred, or otherwise prohibited by the Church, nor clandestinely.

Q. Do the precepts of the Church oblige under pain of mortal sin?

A. Yes; He that will not hear the Church, says Christ, let him be to thee as the Heathen and the Publican. St. Luke x.; St. Matt. xviii.

Q. What is necessary to keep the commandments of God and his church?

A. The grace of God, which is to be obtained chiefly by prayer and the sacraments.

LESSON VII.

ON PRAYER AND THE SACRAMENTS.

Q. What is prayer?

A. An elevation of the soul to God, to adore him, and bless his holy Name, to praise his goodness, and to return him thanks for his benefits.

Q. Is prayer anything else?

A. It is a humble petition to God for all necessaries for soul and body.

Q. After what manner should we pray?

A. With all possible attention and devotion, and in a respectful posture on bended knees.

Q. At what particular time should we pray?

A. On Sundays and holidays; every morning and every night; and in all dangers, temptations, and afflictions.

Q. What conditions are necessary to render our prayers acceptable?

A. We must always offer them with an humble and contrite heart, with fervor and perseverance, with confidence in God's goodness, with resignation to his will, and in the name of Jesus Christ.

Q. What prayers are most recommended to us?

A. The Lord's Prayer, the Hail Mary, the Apostle's Creed, and the Confiteor or general Confession.

Q. Does the church also recommend the Acts of Faith, Hope and Charity?

A. Yes; most earnestly; they are an excellent form of prayer, and remind us of our chief duties to God.

Q. What are our chief duties to God?

A. To believe in him, to hope in him, and to love him.

Q. Why do you make an act of Contrition, before the acts of Faith, Hope, and Charity?

Q. By what other means beside prayer can we obtain the grace of God?

A. By the sacraments, the most powerful of all means.

Q. What is a sacrament?

A. A visible, that is, an outward sign or action, instituted by Christ to give grace.

A. To excite devotion and reverence to them and to signify and explain their effects.

Q. How many sacraments are there?

A. Seven: Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Holy Order and Matrimony.

LESSON VIII.

ON BAPTISM, CONFIRMATION AND THE BLESSED EUCHARIST.

Q. What is Baptism?

A. A sacrament which cleanses from original sin, makes us Christians and children of God and heirs to the kingdom of Heaven.

Q. Is Baptism necessary to salvation?

A. Yes; without it one cannot enter the Kingdom of God. St. John iii. 5.

Q. Who are appointed by Christ to give Baptism?

A. The Pastors of his Church; but in case of necessity any layman or woman can give it.

Q. How is Baptism given?

A. By pouring water on the head of the person to be baptized, saying at the same time, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. St. Matt. xxviii. 19.

Q. What did we promise in Baptism?

A. To renounce the devil, with all his works and pomps.

Q. What is Confirmation?

A. A sacrament which makes us strong and perfect Christians.

Q. What special preparation should be made for confirmation?

A. We should make a good confession; and by fervent prayer beseech our heavenly Father to send his holy spirit on us. St. Luke xi. 13.

Q. What do you think of those who receive confirmation in the state of mortal sin?

A. They receive no benefit by it; but become more sinful, by adding to their former guilt the horrid crime of sacrilege.

Q. What graces are received by confirmation?

A. The seven gifts of the Holy Ghost.

Q. Repeat the seven gifts of the Holy Ghost?

A. Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and the fear of the Lord.

A. Yes; especially in those evil days, when faith, and morals are exposed to so many and such violent temptations.

Q. What obligations do we contract by confirmation?

A. To profess our faith openly; not to deny our religion on any occasion whatsoever; and like good soldiers of Christ, to be faithful to him unto death. Apoc. ii. 10.

Q. What is the blessed Eucharist?

A. The Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, under the appearances of bread and wine.

Q. What means the word Eucharist?

A. A special grace, or gift of God; and it means also, a solemn act of thanksgiving to God for all his mercies.

A. By the goodness and power of God, with whom no word shall be impossible. St. Luke i. 37.

LESSON IX.

ON MASS AND COMMUNION.

Q. What is the Mass?

A. The sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Christ, which are really present under the appearances of bread and wine, and are offered to God by the Priest for the living and the dead.

Q. What is a sacrifice?

A. That first and most necessary act of religion, whereby we acknowledge God's supreme dominion over us, and our total dependence on him.

Q. What are the ends for which Mass is said?

A. To give God honour and glory; to thank him for his benefits; to obtain the remission of our sins, and other graces and blessings through Jesus Christ.

Q. For what other end is Mass offered?

A. To continue and represent the sacrifice of Christ on the Cross. This do, says Christ, for the commemoration of me. 1 Cor. xi.

Q. How should we assist at Mass?

A. With great interior recollection and piety, and with every outward mark of respect and devotion.

Q. Which is the best manner of hearing Mass?

A. To offer it to God, with the Priest, for the same purposes for which it is said; to meditate on Christ's sufferings, and to go to communion.

Q. How must we be prepared for communion?

A. We must be in a state of grace, penetrated with a lively faith, animated with a firm hope, and inflamed with an ardent charity.

Q. What means to be in a state of grace?

A. To be free, at least, from the guilt of mortal sin.

Q. Is anything else required before communion?

A. Yes; to be fasting from midnight; and we should appear very modest and humble, and clean in dress; showing in our whole exterior the greatest devotion and reverence to so holy a sacrament.

Q. What should we do after communion?

A. We should spend some time in meditation and prayer, and, particularly in acts of thanksgiving.

Q. Is it a great sin to receive unworthily?

A. Yes; Whosoever receives unworthily shall be guilty of the Body and of the Blood of the Lord: and eats judgment, that is damnation, to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord. 1 Cor. xi. 27, 29.

Q. What do you mean by receiving unworthily?

A. To receive the blessed Eucharist in the state of mortal sin.

A. A sacrament, by which sins are forgiven, which are committed after baptism.

Q. What must we do to obtain pardon of our sins in the sacrament of penance?

A. We must make a good confession.

Q. Which is the best method to prepare for a good confession?

A. First, earnestly to beg of God the grace to make a good confession. 2dly, to examine ourselves, carefully, on the commandments of God and of his Church; on the seven deadly sins; and particularly on our predominant passions, and the duties of our stations in life; that we may know in what, and how often we have sinned by thought, word, deed, or omission. 3rdly, to make Acts of Faith, Hope and Charity; and 4thly, to excite ourselves to sincere contrition for our sins.

Q. What is contrition?

A. A hearty sorrow and detestation of sin, for having offended God, with a firm resolution of sinning no more.

Q. What should we do at confession?

A. We should beg the priest's blessing, say the Confiteor, accuse ourselves of our sins, listen attentively to his instructions, and renew our sorrow when he gives absolution.

Q. What do you think of those who conceal a mortal sin in confession?

A. They commit a most grievous sin, by telling a lie to the Holy Ghost; and instead of obtaining pardon, they incur much more the wrath of God. Acts v.

Q. What must persons do who did not carefully examine their conscience, or who had not sincere sorrow for their sins, or who wilfully concealed a mortal sin in confession?

A. They must truly repent of all such bad and sacrilegious confessions, and make them all over again.

Q. What is the surest sign that our confessions were good, and that we had a sincere sorrow for our sins?

A. The amendment of our lives.

Q. What should we do after confession?

A. We should return God thanks and diligently perform the penance enjoined by the confessor.

Q. What is Extreme Unction?

A. A sacrament which gives grace to die well, and is instituted chiefly for the spiritual strength and comfort of dying persons.

A. By a good confession; and we should be truly sorry for our sins, and resigned to the will of God, when we are receiving that last sacrament.

Q. What is Holy Order?

A. A sacrament which gives bishops, priests, and inferior clergy to the church, and enables them to perform their several duties in it.

Q. What is Matrimony?

A. A sacrament which gives grace to the husband and wife to live happy together; and to bring up their children in the fear and love of God.

Q. Do they receive the grace of the sacrament of Matrimony, who contract marriage in the state of mortal sin?

A. No: they are guilty of a very great sacrilege, by profaning so great a sacrament, and instead of a blessing they receive their condemnation. Ephes. v. 32.

Q. What should persons do to receive worthily the sacrament of marriage?

A. They should make a good confession, and earnestly beseech God to grant them a pure intention; and to direct them in the choice they are to make.

Q. Should children consult their parents on their intended marriages?

A. Yes; and be advised by them according to reason and religion; they should also give timely notice to their pastor.

A. The blessed Trinity, and the incarnation and death of our Saviour. St. Jno. xvii. 3.

Q. How does the sign of the cross remind us of the blessed Trinity?

A. Because in making the sign of the cross, we invoke the three divine persons; saying, In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Q. How does the sign of the cross bring to our minds the incarnation and death of our Saviour?

A. Because as he suffered death in human flesh, on a cross, the sign of the cross must naturally remind all true Christians of his incarnation and death. Col. i. 20.

Q. Where are true Christians to be found?

A. Only in the true church. Eph. v. 23; Col. i. 18.

LESSON X.

ON THE TRUE CHURCH.

Q. What do you mean by the true church?

A. The congregation of all the faithful, who, being baptized, profess the same doctrine, partake of the same sacraments, and are governed by their lawful pastors, under one visible head on earth. St. Matt. xvi. 18; St. John x. 16.

Q. How do you call the true church?

Q. Is a person in the way of salvation, who believes in the true church, and says that in his heart he is attached to it, but through pride, human respect or worldly motives, does not make open profession of it or does not comply with its essential duties?

A. No, St. Paul says, "with the heart we believe unto justice; but with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." Rom. x. 10.

Q. Will strict honesty to every one, and moral good works ensure salvation, whatever church or religion one professes?

A. No; good works must be enlivened by faith that worketh by charity. Gal. v. 6; St. John viii. 46, 47.

Q. Why must our good works be enlivened by faith?

A. Because the Scripture says: without faith it is impossible to please God. Heb. xi. 6.

Q. Are we justified by faith alone, without good works?

A. No; as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead. James ii. 26.

Q. Must our good works be also enlivened by charity?

A. Yes; for St. Paul says: If I should deliver all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. 1 Cor. xiii. 3.

Q. How is the church catholic or universal?

A. Because it has subsisted in every age, and is to last to the end of time, and is spread throughout all nations. Matt. xxviii. 20; Acts i. 8; xiii. 47.

Q. How is the church apostolical?

A. Because it was founded by Christ on his apostles, and was governed by them and their lawful successors; and because it never ceased, and never will cease to teach their doctrine. Ephes. ii. 20; Matt. xxviii. 20; 1 Tim. vi. 20.

LESSON XI.

THE CHURCH, CONTINUED.

Q. Why do you call the church Roman?

A. Because the visible head of the church is Bishop of Rome; and because St. Peter and his successors fixed their see in Rome. Rom. i. 8.

Q. Who is the visible head of the church?

A. The Pope; who is Christ's vicar on earth, and supreme visible head of the church. Acts ix. 32.

A. The bishops of the holy catholic church. Acts i. 26; 1 Tim. iv. 14; Tit. i. 5.

Q. Can the church err in what it teaches?

A. No; because Christ promised to the pastors of his church: Behold, I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world. St. Matt. xxviii. 20; xviii. 17.

Q. Why did Christ promise always to remain with his church?

A. That he himself, directing and assisting by his holy spirit the pastors of his church, might teach all ages and nations. Acts xv.

A. That the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. St. Matt. xvi. 18.

A. Any wilful thought, word, deed or omission contrary to the law of God. St. James i. 14, 15.

Q. How many kinds of actual sin are there?

A. Two; mortal and venial. St. Matt. vii. 3; xxiii. 24.

Q. What is mortal sin?

A. A grievous offence or transgression against the law of God. Gal. v. 19, 21.

Q. Why is it called mortal?

A. Because it kills the soul by depriving it of its true life, which is sanctifying grace—and because it brings everlasting death and damnation on the soul. Ecclus. v.; St. Matt. xxv. 35.

Q. Does venial sin deprive the soul of sanctifying grace, and deserve everlasting punishment?

A. No; but it hurts the soul by lessening its love for God, and by disposing to mortal sin.—The Scripture says: He that contemneth small things, shall fall by little and little. Ecclus. xix. 1.

Q. What is sanctifying grace?

A. That grace which sanctifies the soul, and makes it pleasing to God. Phil. ii. 13.

A. We should repent sincerely and go to confession as soon as possible. Deut. iv. 29; 1 St. John i. 9.

A. That we may recover God's friendship, and be always prepared to die. St. James v. 16; Ecclus. v. 8.

Q. What should we do, if we cannot go to confession, when we fall into mortal sin?

A. We should excite ourselves to perfect contrition, with a sincere desire of going to confession as soon as we can. Deut. xxx. 1, 2, 3.

Q. How do you express an act of perfect contrition?

A. O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended thee, and I detest my sins most sincerely, not only because by them I have lost all right to heaven, and have deserved the everlasting torments of hell, but especially because they displease thee, my God, who art so deserving of all my love, on account of thy infinite goodness, and most amiable perfections; and I firmly resolve, by thy holy grace, never more to offend thee, and to amend my life.

Q. Will perfect contrition reconcile us to God when we cannot go to confession?

A. Yes; and it is the only means we have to recover God's friendship when we cannot go to confession. Ezech. xxxiii. 12; 1 St. John iv. 16.

Q. What is necessary for our contrition to be perfect?

A. That we should be truly sorry for our sins, because they are offensive to God, who is so good in himself; with a sincere resolution not to offend God any more; to satisfy for our sins, and to go to confession as soon as we can. Ezech. xviii. 21; Is. i. 16.

Q. Do any others go to Purgatory besides those who die in venial sin?

A. Yes; all who die indebted to God's justice on account of mortal sin. St. Matt. v. 25, 26.

Q. When God forgives mortal sin as to the guilt of it, and the eternal punishment it deserved, does he require temporary punishment to be suffered for it?

A. Yes; very often, for our correction—to deter us from relapsing into sin; and that we should make some atonement to his offended justice and goodness. Num. xiv. 23; xxxii.; and 2 Kings xii., xiii., xiv.; 3 Kings xiii. 21.

Q. Can the souls in Purgatory be relieved by our prayers and other good works?

A. Yes; being children of God, and still members of the church, they share in the communion of saints; and the Scripture says, it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins. 2 Macc. xii. 46.

Q. What means the communion of saints?

A. If thou wilt enter into life, says Christ, keep the commandments. St. Matt. xix. 17.

A. Because he is the Infallible Truth, and therefore cannot deceive or be deceived. Num. xxiii. 19.

Q. What is hope?

A. A divine virtue, by which we firmly hope for eternal life, and for the means to obtain it. Heb. xiii. 14.

Q. What is charity?

A. A divine virtue, by which we love God above all for his own sake; and our neighbours as ourselves for the love of God. St. John xiii. 34, 35.

A. By no means; for they have neither life, nor sense, nor power to hear or help us. 4 Kings xviii. 4.

A. A Sacrament which cleanses from original sin, makes us Christians and children of God, and heirs to the kingdom of heaven. Tit. iii. 5; Eph. v. 26.

Q. Does Baptism also remit the actual sins committed before it?

A. Yes; and all the punishments due to them. St. John iii. 6; Acts ii. 38.

Q. Is Baptism necessary to salvation?

A. Yes; without it one cannot enter into the kingdom of God. St. John iii. 5; St. Luke iii. 16.

Q. Who are appointed by Christ to give baptism?

A. The pastors of his church; but in case of necessity any layman or woman can give it. St. Matt. xxviii.; Acts xxii. 16.

Q. How is Baptism given?

A. By pouring water on the head of the person to be baptized; saying at the same time, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. St. Matt. xxviii. 19.

Q. What did we promise in Baptism?

A. To renounce the devil, with all his works and pomps. 1 Pet. iii. 21.

LESSON XXV.

ON CONFIRMATION.

Q. What is confirmation?

A. A Sacrament which makes us strong and perfect Christians. 2 Cor. i. 22; Acts viii. 14, 15, 16; v. 41, 42.

Q. How does the Bishop give Confirmation?

A. By the imposition of hands and by prayer; that is, he holds out his hands, and prays at the same time, that the Holy Ghost may descend upon those who are to be confirmed—and then he makes the sign of the cross on their foreheads with chrism. Acts xix. 5, 6.

Q. Why does the Bishop give the persons he confirms a stroke on the cheek?

A. To put them in mind, that by confirmation they are strengthened to suffer; and, if necessary, even to die for Christ. Catech. Council Trent.

Q. To receive confirmation worthily, is it necessary to be in the state of grace?

A. Yes; and children of an age to learn, should be instructed in the Christian doctrine. Wis. i. 4.

Q. What special preparations should be made for confirmation?

A. We should make a good confession, and by fervent prayer beseech our heavenly Father, to send his Holy Spirit on us. Luke xi. 13.

Q. What do you think of those who receive confirmation in the state of mortal sin?

A. They receive no benefit by it; but become more sinful, by adding to their former guilt the horrid crime of sacrilege.

Q. What graces are received by confirmation?

A. The seven gifts of the Holy Ghost. Acts i. 8; xix.

Q. Repeat the seven gifts of the Holy Ghost.

A. Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude,

Knowledge, Piety, and the fear of the Lord. Is. xi. 2, 3.

Q. What obligations do we contract by confirmation?

A. To profess our faith openly; not to deny our religion on any occasion whatsoever; and like good soldiers of Christ, to be faithful to him unto death. Apoc. ii. 10.

Q. Is it a sin to neglect confirmation?

A. Yes; especially in those evil days, when faith and morals are exposed to so many and such violent temptations. St. Luke xi. 13.

LESSON XXVI.

ON THE BLESSED EUCHARIST.

Q. What is the blessed Eucharist?

A. The Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, under the appearances of bread and wine. St. Matt. xxvi. 26.

Q. What means the word Eucharist?

A. A special grace, or gift of God; and it means also, a solemn act of thanksgiving to God for all his mercies. Ecclus. vi. 5.

Q. What do you mean by the appearances of bread and wine?

A. The taste, colour, and form of bread and wine, which still remain, after the bread and wine are changed into the body and blood of Christ.

Q. Are both the body and blood of Christ under the appearance of bread and under the appearance of wine?

A. Yes; Christ is whole and entire true God and true Man, under the appearance of each. 1 Cor. xi. 27; St. Luke xxiv. 30.

Q. Are we to believe that the God of all Glory is under the appearance of our corporal food?

A. Yes; as we also believe, that the same God of all Glory suffered death, under the appearance of a criminal on the cross. Phil. ii. 6.

Q. How can the bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ?

A. By the goodness and power of God, with whom no word shall be impossible. Luke i. 37.

Q. Are we assured, that Christ changed bread and wine into his body and blood?

A. Yes; by the very words which Christ himself said when he instituted the blessed Eucharist at his last supper.

Q. Which are the words Christ said, when he instituted the blessed Eucharist?

A. This is my body—this is my blood. St. Matt. xxvi.

Q. Did Christ give power to the priests of his church to change bread and wine into his body and blood?

A. Yes; when he said to his apostles at his last supper: Do this for a commemoration of me. St. Luke xxii. 19.

Q. Why did Christ give to the priests of his church so great a power?

A. That his children throughout all ages and nations, might have a most acceptable sacrifice to offer to their Heavenly Father—and the most precious food to nourish their souls. Is. xix. 21; Mal. i. 11.

Q. What is a sacrifice?

A. That first and most necessary act of religion, whereby we acknowledge God's supreme dominion over us, and our total dependence on him. Heb. v. 1; Gen. viii.; Job. xlii

Q. What is the sacrifice of the new law?

A. The Mass. Heb. vii. 12.

Q. What is the Mass?

A. The sacrifice of the body and blood of Christ, which are really present under the appearances of bread and wine; and are offered to God by the priest for the living and the dead. 1 Cor. x. 16.

Q. Is the Mass a different sacrifice from that of the cross?

A. No; because the same Christ, who once offered himself a bleeding victim to his heavenly Father on the cross, continues to offer himself, in an unbloody manner, by the hands of his priests, on our altars. 1 Cor. xi. 26.

Q. Was Mass offered in the old law?

A. No; so great a sacrifice was reserved for the new law, which was to fulfil the figures of the old law, and to give religion its full perfection. Heb. xiii. 10.

Q. At what part of the Mass are the bread and wine changed into the body and blood of Christ?

A. At the consecration. St. Mark xiv. 22, 23.

Q. By whom are the bread and wine changed into the body and blood of Christ?

A. By the priest; but in virtue of the words of Christ, whose person the priest represents, at the awful moment of consecration. St. Luke xxii. 19.

Q. What are the ends for which Mass is said?

A. To give God honour and glory; to thank him for his benefits; to obtain the remission of our sins and all other graces and blessings through Jesus Christ.

Q. For what other end is Mass offered?

A. To continue and represent the sacrifice of Christ on the cross—This do, says Christ, for the commemoration of me. 1 Cor. xi.

Q. How should we assist at Mass?

A. With great interior recollection and piety; and with every outward mark of respect and devotion.

Q. Which is the best manner of hearing Mass?

A. To offer it to God with the priest for the same purposes for which it is said; to meditate on Christ's sufferings, and to go to communion.

LESSON XXVII.

ON COMMUNION AND PENANCE.

Q. What do you mean by going to communion?

A. Receiving the blessed Eucharist.

Q. Is it advisable to go often to communion?

A. It is; as nothing can conduce more to a holy life. He that eateth this bread, says Christ, shall live for ever. St. John vi. 59.

Q. How must we be prepared for communion?

A. We must be in the state of grace; penetrated with a lively faith, animated with a firm hope, and inflamed with an ardent charity. 1 Cor. xi. 28.

Q. What means to be in a state of grace?

A. To be free, at least, from the guilt of mortal sin. 1 St. John iii. 9.

Q. How are we to be penetrated with a lively faith?

A. By firmly believing that the blessed Eucharist is Jesus Christ himself, true God and true man, his very flesh and blood, with his soul and divinity. Heb. xi. 6.

Q. How are we to be animated with a firm hope?

A. By having great confidence in the goodness of Christ, who gives himself to us without reserve in that banquet of love. Heb. iv. 16.

Q. And how are we to be inflamed with an ardent charity?

A. By returning love for love to Christ, and by devoting ourselves in earnest to his service, all the days of our lives. St. Mark xii. 30.

Q. Is anything else required before communion?

A. Yes, to be fasting from midnight; and we should appear very modest and humble, and clean in dress; showing in our whole exterior the greatest devotion and reverence to so holy a sacrament.

Q. What should we do after communion?

A. We should spend some time in meditation and prayer; and particularly in acts of thanksgiving. St. Luke xvii. 17, 19.

Q. Is it a great sin to receive it unworthily?

A. Yes; whosoever receives unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord; and eats judgment (that is damnation) to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord. 1 Cor. xi. 27, 29.

Q. What do you mean by receiving unworthily?

A. To receive the blessed Eucharist in the state of mortal sin.

Q. What should a person do, if he be in mortal sin, before communion?

A. He must obtain pardon in the sacrament of Penance. St. John i. 9.

Q. What is Penance?

A. A sacrament by which sins are forgiven which are committed after baptism. St. Matt. xvi. 19; xviii. 18.

Q. By whose power are sins forgiven?

A. By the power of God, which Christ left to the pastors of his church. St. Matt. ix. 6.

Q. When did Christ leave to the pastors of his church the power of forgiving sins?

A. Chiefly when he said to his apostles, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: whose sins you shall forgive they are forgiven them, and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained. John xx. 22, 23.

Q. What must we do, to obtain pardon of our sins in the sacrament of Penance?

A. We must make a good confession. St. Mark i. 4; St. Jas v. 16.

LESSON XXVIII.

ON CONFESSION, AND ON INDULGENCES.

Q. What is the best method to prepare for a good confession?

A. First: earnestly to beg of God the grace to make a good confession.—Secondly: to examine ourselves carefully, on the commandments of God and of his church; on the seven deadly sins, and particularly on our predominant passions; and the duties of our stations in life; that we may know in what, and how often we have sinned by thought, word, deed, or omission.—Thirdly: to make acts of faith, hope and charity.—And fourthly: to excite ourselves to sincere contrition for our sins.

Q. What is contrition?

A. A hearty sorrow and detestation of sin, for having offended God, with a firm resolution of sinning no more. Joel ii. 12; St. Matt. x. 37.

Q. How may we excite ourselves to contrition?

A. By the following motives or considerations: the fear of hell; the loss of heaven; our ingratitude in offending God, who is so good to us; and the injury our sins do to God, who is infinitely good in himself. St. Matt. x. 28. St. Luke xii. 5; Job xxxiv. 27.

Q. Do you recommend any other motive to excite sorrow for our sins?

A. Yes; to consider that the Son of God died for our sins: and that we crucify him again as often as we offend him. Heb. vi. 6.

Q. Which of these motives is the best to excite contrition?

A. To be sorry for our sins because they are offensive to God, who is infinitely good and perfect in himself. 1 St. John iv. 18; 1 Cor. xvi. 22.

Q. What should we do at confession?

A. We should beg the priest's blessing, say the confiteor; accuse ourselves of our sins; listen attentively to his instructions: and renew our sorrow, when he gives absolution.

Q. What do you think of those who conceal a mortal sin in confession?

A. They commit a most grievous sin by telling a lie to the Holy Ghost—and instead of obtaining pardon, they incur much more the wrath of God. Acts v.

Q. What must persons do who did not carefully examine their conscience; or who had not sincere sorrow for their sins; or who wilfully concealed a mortal sin in confession?

A. They must truly repent of all such bad and sacrilegious confessions: and make them all over again. St. John viii. 21.

Q. What is the surest sign that our confessions were good; and that we had a sincere sorrow for our sins?

A. The amendment of our lives. Is. i. 16.

Q. What should we do after confession?

A. We should return God thanks; and diligently perform the penance enjoined by the confessor. Ez. xviii. 21.

Q. What do you mean by the penance enjoined by the confessor?

A. The prayers and other good works which he enjoins on penitents, in satisfaction for their sins. Tob. iv. 11, 12.

Q. Will the penance enjoined in confession, always satisfy for our sins?

A. No; but whatever else is wanting may be supplied by indulgences, and our own penitential endeavors. St. Matt. xvi. 19.

Q. What does the church teach concerning indulgences?

A. That Christ gave power to the church to grant indulgences, and that they are most useful to Christian people. Conc. Trid. xi. 25.

Q. What is the use of an indulgence?

A. It releases from canonical penance enjoined by the church on penitents, for certain sins. St. Matt. xviii. 18.

Q. Has an indulgence any other effect?

A. It also remits the temporary punishments with which God often visits our sins—and which must be suffered in this life, or the next; unless cancelled by indulgences, by acts of penance or other good works. Acts xxvi. 20.

Q. Has the church power to grant such indulgences?

A. Yes; Whatsoever, says Christ to St. Peter, thou shalt loose upon earth, it shall be loosed also in heaven. Matt. xvi. 19; 2 Cor. ii. 10.

Q. To whom does the church grant indulgences?

A. To such only as are in the state of grace; and are sincerely desirous to amend their lives and to satisfy God's justice by penitential works. St. Luke xiii. 5; Lev. iv.

Q. An indulgence is not then a pardon for sins to come, nor a license to commit sin?

A. No; nor can it remit past sin—for sin must be remitted by penance, as to the guilt of it, and the eternal punishment due to mortal sin, before an indulgence can be gained. 1 Cor. v. and 2 Cor. ii.

Q. Why does the church grant indulgences?

A. To assist our weakness, and to supply our insufficiency in satisfying the Divine Justice for our transgressions. Jer. xviii. 7, 8.

Q. What conditions are generally necessary to gain indulgences?

A. A good confession and communion, and a faithful compliance with the other good works, which the church requires on such occasions. Dan. iv. 24.

Q. What are the other good works which the church usually prescribes, in order to gain indulgences?

A. Prayer, fast, and almsdeeds; which good works indulgences promote: and on this account also they are most useful to Christian people. Rom. viii. 13.

LESSON XXIX.

ON EXTREME UNCTION, HOLY ORDER, AND MATRIMONY.

Q. What is extreme unction?

A. A sacrament which gives grace to die well; and is instituted chiefly for the spiritual strength and comfort of dying persons.

Q. Is extreme unction given to all persons in danger of death?

A. No; only to such as are in danger of death by sickness.

Q. How should we prepare ourselves for extreme unction?

A. By a good confession—and we should be truly sorry for our sins, and resigned to the will of God, when we [illegible] receiving that last sacrament.

Q. Who are appointed to administer the sacrament of extreme unction?

A. The priests of the church, as St. James teaches, and as the church has constantly practised. Is any man sick among you? Let him bring in the priests of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, &c. James v. 14.

Q. What is holy-order?

A. A sacrament which gives bishops, priests, and inferior clergy to the church; and enables them to perform their several duties in it. Phil. 1; 1 St. Mark xvi. 15; St. John xx. 21; 1 Tim. iv. 14; Acts xx. 28.

Q. What is matrimony?

A. A sacrament which gives grace to the husband and wife to live happy together; and to bring up their children in the fear and love of God. St. Matt. xix. 6.

Q. Do they receive the grace of the sacrament of matrimony who contract marriage in the state of mortal sin?

A. No; they are guilty of a very great sacrilege, by profaning so great a sacrament; and instead of a blessing, they receive their condemnation. Ephes. v. 32.

Q. What should persons do to receive worthily the sacrament of marriage?

A. They should make a good confession—and earnestly beseech God to grant them a pure intention; and to direct them in the choice they are to make. Heb. xiii. 4.

Q. Should children consult their parents on their intended marriages?

A. Yes; and be advised by them according to reason and religion—they should also give timely notice to their pastor.

Q. What is the reason that so many marriages prove unhappy?

A. Because many enter into that holy state from unworthy motives, and with guilty consciences: therefore their marriages are not blessed by God. 1 Cor. vii. 28.

Q. Can the bond or tie of marriage be ever broken?

A. It never can, but by the death of the husband or wife. St. Matt. xix.; Rom. vii. and 1 Cor. vii.

Q. Can the sacraments be received more than once?

A. All can except baptism, confirmation, and holy order, which imprint on the soul a character or spiritual mark, which never can be effaced. Eph. i. 13; iv. 30.

Q. Which sacraments are most necessary to us?

A. Baptism and penance.

Q. Why did Christ institute the sacraments?

A. For the sanctification of our souls, and to prepare us for a happy and glorious resurrection. 2 Cor. i. 4.

LESSON XXX.

ON THE GENERAL JUDGMENT.

Q. What means the resurrection of the body?

A. That we shall all rise again on the last day, with the same bodies which we had in this life. St. John v. 25.

Q. What do you mean by the last day?

A. The day of general judgment; when we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ—and then will he render to every man according to his works. 2 Cor. v. 10; St. Matt. xvi. 27.

Q. Will our bodies rise united to our souls?

A. Yes; to share in the soul's eternal bliss or misery. Job xix. 25; 1 Cor. xv. 12, 51.

Q. How are the bodies of the saints to rise?

A. Glorious and immortal. Dan. xii. 3; Wis. iii. 7.

Q. Are the bodies of the damned to rise glorious?

A. No; but they shall rise immortal, to live for ever in eternal flames. St. Luke xiii. 28.

Q. In what manner will Christ come to judge us?

A. In the clouds of heaven, with great power and majesty, and all the angels with him. St. Matt. xxiv. and xxv.

Q. As every one is judged immediately after death, what need is there of a general judgment?

A. That the providence of God, which often here permits the good to suffer, and the wicked to prosper, may appear just before all men St. Luke viii. 17.

Q. What will Christ say to the good on the last day?

A. Come, ye blessed of my Father, possess the kingdom prepared for you. Matt. xxv. 34.

Q. What shall Christ say to the wicked on the last day?

A. Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, which was prepared for the devil and his angels. St. Matt. xxv. 41.

Q. Where must the wicked go at the last day?

A. They shall go, both body and soul, into everlasting punishment. Judith xvi. 20.

Q. Where shall the just go at the last day?

A. The just will enter, with glorious and immortal bodies, into life everlasting. St. Matt. xxv. 46; 1 St. John iii. 2.

Q. What means life everlasting?

A. It means, if we serve God faithfully in this life, we shall be happy with him for ever in heaven. Gen. xv. 1; 2 Tim. iv. 8.

Q. What is the happiness of heaven?

A. To see, love, and enjoy God in the kingdom of his glory, for ever and ever. Amen. Ps. lxxii. 27, 28.

Q. What means Amen?

A. So be it.

LESSON XXXI.

SUPPLEMENTARY.

Q. Can the Pope as head of the Church, teach false doctrine, or approve of its being taught?

A. No; the Pope is an infallible teacher in all doctrines concerning faith and morals, which he defines, as Pastor and Teacher of all Christians.

Q. How is the Pope's infallibility in these matters proved?

A. Chiefly by these words of Christ addressed to St. Peter, to whose authority and privileges the Pope succeeds: "I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not, and thou, being once converted, confirm thy brethern."—St. Luke xxii. 32. And "Thou art Peter," or a Rock, " and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."—St. Matt. xvi. 18. The church being infallible in matters of faith, the Rock upon which it is built must be equally strong against all assaults of the Devil.

Q. Has any one been exempted from original sin inherited from our first parents?

A. Yes; the Blessed Virgin Mary was, by a special grace and privilege from Almighty God, preserved from every stain of sin by virtue of the merits of her Son Jesus Christ, whose death availed beforehand to prepare a pure body for the Son of God from which he might assume human nature. This is what we mean by the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary.—Gen. iii. 15; Apoc. xii. 1; St. Luke ii. 30, 48.

Q. Does God force man to do good?

A. No; though God's grace is necessary for salvation, man is free to resist it; and this freedom is the source of merit. The Scripture says: "He that could have transgressed, and hath not transgressed: and could do evil things, and hath not done them, therefore are his goods established in the Lord."—Ecclus. xxxi. 10, 11.

Q. Is any man forced to do evil?

A. No; the Scripture says: "Let no man when he is tempted, say that he is tempted of God; for God is not a tempter of evils; and he tempteth no man."—St. James i. 13; and "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able, but will make with temptation issue that you may be able to bear it."—1 Cor. x. 13.

THE CATHOLIC
SCRIPTURAL CATECHISM.

Q. What is the Catholic Rule of faith?

A. The revealed Word of God.

Q. Of what does the Revealed Word of God consist?

A. It consists of two parts: the Written Word called the Holy Scripture, and the Unwritten Word called Divine Tradition.

Q. Are these two parts of equal authority?

A. Yes; because they have been equally revealed by God.

Q. Which of these parts was before the other?

A. The Unwritten Word was before the Written Word, with respect both to the Old Testament and the New Testament.

Q. What divine traditions existed before Moses wrote the first books of the Old Testament?

A. The duty of sanctifying the Sabbath, (Gen. ii. 3;) the prohibition of eating the blood of animals, (Gen. ix. 4;) the rite of circumcision, (Gen. xvii. 10;) and generally the whole history of Religion before the time of Moses, during 2500 years.

Q. What traditions of the Christian Religion existed before the several Books of the New Testament were promulgated or written?

A. The substitution of the Sunday, as a Holy Day, for the Sabbath, or Saturday; the abrogation of the necessity of the circumcision, and, generally, the whole system of the Christian Religion.

Q. Did Jesus Christ write the New Scripture?

A. No; he did not write any part of it.

Q. Did he at any time before his ascension, command his Apostles to write it?

A. No; though some of them were inspired, on subsequent occasions, to write the Books of it, which bear their names.

Q. In what manner then did Christ commission them to publish his doctrine and precepts?

A. By preaching; his last words to them, according to St. Matthew, being these: Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things, whatsoever I have commanded you, and, behold, I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world. Matt. xxviii. 19, 20.

Q. Did the Apostles observe this precept in converting nations to the Faith?

A. Yes, they did; for St. Mark testifies of them that after Christ had commanded them to Preach the Gospel to every creature—they, going forth, preached every where, the Lord coöperating with them and confirming the word by signs that followed. Mark. xvi. 20.

Q. Did the Apostles instruct their disciples to follow the same method?

A. Yes; for St. Paul writes to Timothy: The things which thou hast heard from me by many witnesses, the same commend to faithful men, who shall be fit to teach others also. 2 Tim. ii. 2.

Q. Has no Christian Nation or Province since the time of the Apostles, been converted by reading the Holy Scriptures?

A. No; they have all been converted by Preachers, succeeding, by due authority, to the above mentioned commission, given to the Apostles.

Q. Did not Christ tell the Jews to Search the Scriptures? (John v. 39,) and did not St. Paul commend the Bereans for Searching the Scriptures whether these things were so? Acts xvii. 11.

A. The texts in both these instances referred to the prophecies in the Old Testament concerning the Messiah, which were evidently fulfilled in the Person and actions of our Saviour; not to the doctrines of Christianity, nor to the New Testament, which was not then written. The same is to be said of St. Paul's commendation of Timothy, for having Known the holy Scriptures from his infancy, (2 Tim. iii. 15.) Reading the Old Testament with suitable disposition, no doubt was profitable to this Disciple for instruction, but the Apostle plainly signifies that Timothy had learned his faith in Jesus Christ from him, St. Paul, (2 Tim. iii. 14, 15;) namely, when he preached at Lystra. Acts xiv. 14.

Q. Are the Scriptures, of themselves, easily understood?

A. No; they contain Things hard to be understood, which the unlearned and unstable wrest to their own destruction, (2 Pet. iii. 16.) The same is evident from the great variety of Sects, who profess to build their Faith on the Scriptures alone, and yet differ from each other on the fundamental articles of Christianity.

Q. Has Christ furnished us with any means by which we may learn with certainty, the sense of the Holy Scriptures in all necessary points?

A. Yes; he has established a never failing tribunal, both to preserve and interpret his divine Word in both its branches, namely his Holy Church.

Q. How do you prove this?

A. In every State and Society of Mankind, there are and must be Judges and Magistrates, to maintain the Laws, and to decide upon their meaning. Accordingly Christ, in founding his Church, against which the gates of Hell shall not prevail, (Matt. xvi.

18,) commands us all to hear it, under pain of being considered as heathens and publicans (Matt. xviii. 17.) In like manner, having sent his Apostles to teach all Nations, he promised to remain with them for ever, and to send them the Spirit of Truth, who shall teach them all truth. John xvi. 13.

Q. How does the Church deliver to us the Sense of Scripture and tradition.

A. By the decisions of her Bishops, and especially of her chief Bishop in the Chair of St. Peter; by the Sermons and Instructions of her other Pastors, and by the approved good books, especially the Cathechisms, which she puts into our hands.

Q. Is it not morally possible that the doctrines of the Seven Sacraments, the Real Presence, Transubstantiation, Invoking the Saints, Praying for the Dead, &c., which Catholics term Divine Traditions, and the true sense of Scripture, may have sprung from the fraud of the Clergy, and the credulity of the People, at some former period?

A. No; this in morally impossible: since these doctrines have always been held, both by the Clergy and People of the whole Catholic Church, spread as it is, and always has been, throughout the whole world. Besides this, these doctrines are, and always have been, held by the ancient heretics, who were separated from the Catholic Church in the fifth and following centuries.

Q. In what does the word of God contained in the Holy Scriptures, properly consist?

A. Not in the mere words of the Sacred Text: but in the meaning of it, as the Holy Fathers teach.

Q. What follows from this?

A. That many persons who are most assiduous in reading the Bible, yet do not attain to the truths of Religion, taught by Jesus Christ, and are really ignorant of the Word of God.

Q. What else?

A. That others who have learned the essential truths of Revelation, as to what they have to believe, and what they have to practise, from their Pastor's instructions and their Catechisms, have really attained to the knowledge of God's Word, even though they should never have read any portion of the Bible.

Q. Is there any obligation of reading the Scriptures?

A. The Catholic Clergy are required to read and to pray out of it every day. A more strict obligation of studying both the Written and Unwritten Word of God, lies on the Pastors, whose duty it is to inculcate it to the faithful. But there is no such general obligation incumbent on the Laity: it being sufficient that they listen to it from their Pastors.

Q. Is it lawful for the Laity to read the Holy Scriptures?

A. They may read them in the language in which they were written, as likewise in the ancient Vulgate Translation, which the Church vouches to be authentic. They may also read them in approved modern versions; but with due submission to the interpretation and authority of the Church.

Q. Have any great evils ensued from an unrestricted reading of the Bible, in vulgar languages, by the unlearned and unstable?

A. Yes; numberless heresies and impieties; as also many rebellions and civil wars.

FROM DR. CHALLONER'S CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN INSTRUCTED.)

OF EXORCISMS, AND BENEDICTIONS, OR BLESSINGS OF CREATURES IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, AND OF THE USE OF HOLY WATER.

Q. What do you mean by Exorcism?

A. The rites and prayers instituted by the Church for casting out devils, or restraining them from hurting persons, disquieting places, or abusing any of God's creatures to our harm.

Q. Has Christ given his Church any such power over the devils?

A. Yes, he has: see St. Matt. x. 1; St. Mark iii. 15; St. Luke ix. 1; where this power was given to the Apostles; and to the seventy-two Disciples, St. Luke x. 19; and to other believers, St. Mark xvi. 17, 18. And that this power was not to die with the Apostles, nor to cease after the Apostolic age, we learn from the perpetual practice of the Church and the experience of all ages.

Q. What is the meaning of blessing so many things in the Catholic Church?

A. We bless Churches and other places set aside for divine service; altars, chalices, vestments, &c., by way of devoting them to holy uses. We bless our meats and other inanimate things which God has given us for our use, that we may use them in moderation, in a manner agreeable to God's institution; that they may be serviceable to us, and that the devil may have no power to abuse them to our prejudice. We bless candles, salt, water, &c., by way of begging of God that such as religiously use them may obtain his blessing, &c.

Q. But does it not savour of superstition to attribute any virtue to such inanimate things as blessed candles, holy water, Agnus Deis, &c.?

A. It is no superstition to look for a good effect from the prayers of the Church of God; and it is in virtue of these prayers that we hope for benefit from these things when used with faith, and daily experience shows that our hopes are not vain.

Q. What do you mean by Agnus Deis?

A. Wax stamped with the image of the Lamb of God, blessed by the Pope with solemn prayers, and anointed with the holy chrism.

Q. What warrant have you in Scripture for blessing inanimate things?

A. 1 Tim. iv. 4, 5; Every creature of God is good, and nothing to be rejected that is received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified by the Word of God and prayer.

Q. Why does the Church make use of the sign of the cross in all her blessings and consecrations?

A. To signify that all our good must come through Christ crucified.

Q. What do you mean by Holy Water?

A. Water sanctified by the Word of God and prayer.

Q. What is the use of Holy Water?

A. It is blessed by the Church in solemn prayers, to beg God's protection and blessing upon those that use it, and in particular that they may be defended from all the powers of darkness.

Q. Is the use of Holy Water very ancient in the Church of God?

A. It is very ancient, since it is mentioned in the Apostolic Constitutions, l. 8, c. 29. And as for the English nation in particular, it is visible from the epistles of St. Gregory the Great, l. 9, epis. 71, that we received it together with our Christianity.

Q. Have the Holy Fathers and ancient Church writers left upon record any miracles done by Holy Water?

A. Yes; they have; more particularly upon those occasions when it has been used against magical enchantments and the power of the devil. See instances in St. Epiphanius, Hær. 30; in St. Hierome, in the life of St. Hilarion; in Theodoret, l. 5, Histor. Eccl. c. 21; in Palladius Histor. Laus. c. 6, &c.

OF CHRISTIAN VIRTUES AND GOOD WORKS.

Q. Say the three Theological Virtues.

A. Faith, hope, and charity.

Q. Say the four Cardinal Virtues.

A. Prudence, justice, temperance, and fortitude.

Q. How many sorts of alms or works of mercy?

A. Two; corporal and spiritual.

Q. How many corporal works of mercy?

A. Seven—1. To feed the hungry. 2. To give drink to the thirsty. 3. To clothe the naked. 4. To harbour pilgrims or travellers. 5. To ransom prisoners. 6. To visit the sick. 7. To bury the dead.

Q. How many spiritual works of mercy?

A. Seven—1. To give good counsel. 2. To instruct the ignorant. 3. To admonish sinners. 4. To comfort the afflicted. 5. To pardon injuries. 6. To bear wrongs patiently. 7. To pray for the living and the dead.

THE EIGHT BEATITUDES.

I. Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

II. Blessed are the meek, for they shall possess the earth.

III. Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

IV. Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after justice, for they shall be filled.

V. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

VI. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.

VII. Blessed are the peace makers, for they shall be called the children of God.

VIII. Blessed are they that suffer persecution for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

OF THE SINS AGAINST THE HOLY GHOST; THOSE THAT CRY FOR VENGEANCE; AND THE FOUR LAST THINGS.

Q. Which are the sins against the Holy Ghost?

A. These six—1. Despair of salvation. 2. Presumption of God's mercy, without amending one's life. 3. To impugn the known truth, in matters of faith and religion. 4. Envying another's spiritual good. 5. Obstinacy in sin; and 6. Final impenitence.

Q. Why are these called sins against the Holy Ghost?

A. Because they directly oppose and affront the infinite goodness of God.

Q. Why does our Saviour say, that sins against the Holy Ghost "Shall not be forgiven, neither in this world, nor in the world to come?" Matt. xii. 32.

A. Because those who are guilty of the first five of those sins, seldom or never do repent of such sins, and are with great difficulty brought to be sorry for them; and those that are guilty of the last, or final impenitence, never can repent; but dying in mortal guilt, and enemies to God, are incapable of forgiveness.

Q. What are the sins that cry to heaven for vengeance?

A. These four—1. Wilful murder. 2. The sins of Sodom. 3. Oppression of the poor; and 4. Defrauding laborers of their wages.

Q. What are the four last things to be remembered?

A. 1. Death. 2. Judgment. 3. Heaven. 4. Hell.

Q. Is the frequent remembrance of these things useful to the soul?

A. It is a most powerful preservative against sin; for the Scripture says, "In all thy works remember thy last end and thou shalt never sin." Ecclus. vii. 40.

APPENDIX.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF GOD.

As found in the XX. Chapter of Exodus.

AND the Lord spoke all these words:

2. I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3. Thou shalt not have strange gods before me.

4. Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or on the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth.

5. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them; I am the Lord thy God, mighty, jealous, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6. And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that shall take the name of the Lord his God in vain.

8. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day.

9. Six days shalt thou labour, and shalt do all thy works.

10. But on the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; thou shalt do no work on it, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy beast, nor the stranger that is within thy gates.

11. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are in them, and rested on the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the seventh day and sanctified it.

12. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thou mayst be long-lived upon the land which the Lord thy God will give thee.

13. Thou shalt not kill.

14. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15. Thou shalt not steal.

16. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house; neither shalt thou desire his wife, nor his servant, nor his hand-maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

THE MANNER OF

SERVING AND ANSWERING AT MASS.

The servitor kneeling at the left side of the Priest, and on a level with his feet, shall answer him as follows :

✝ In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.
Introibo ad altare Dei.
R. Ad Deum qui lætificat juventutem meam.
P. Judica me, Deus, et discerne causam meam de gente non sancta : ab homine iniquo et doloso erue me.
R. Quia tu es Deus, fortitudo mea ; quare me repulisti, et quare tristis incedo dum affligit me inimicus ?
P. Emitte lucem tuam, et veritatem tuam : ipsa me deduxerunt et adduxerunt in montem sanctum tuum, et in tabernacula tua.
R. Et introibo ad altare Dei ; ad Deum qui lætificat juventutem meam.
P. Confitebor tibi in cithara, Deus, Deus meus : quare tristis es, anima mea, et quare conturbas me ?
R. Spera in Deo, quoniam adhuc confitebor illi, salutare vultus mei, et Deus meus.
P. Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto.
R. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in secula seculorum. Amen.
P. Introibo ad altare Dei.
R. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.
P. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Domini.
R. Qui fecit cœlum et terram.
P. Confiteor Deo, &c.
R. Misereatur tui Omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis tuis, perducat te ad vitam æternam. P. Amen.

Bow the head when you begin the Confiteor, and continue bent till you have answered Amen after Misereatur. &c.

R. Confiteor Deo Omnipotenti, beatæ Mariæ semper Virgini, beato Michaeli Archangelo, beato Joanni Baptistæ, sanctis Apostolis Petro et Paulo, omnibus Sanctis, et tibi, pater, quia peccavi nimis cogitatione, verbo et opere, (striking your breast thrice, say,) mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa: ideo precor beatam Mariam semper Virginem, beatum Michaelem Archangelum, beatum Joannem Baptistam, sanctos Apostolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et te, pater, orare pro me ad Dominum Deum nostrum.

P. Misereatur vestri, &c. R. Amen.
P. Indulgentiam, Absolutionem, &c. R. Amen.
P. Deus tu conversus vivificabis nos.
R. Et plebs tua lætabitur in te.
P. Ostende nobis, Domine misericordiam tuam.
R. Et salutare tuum da nobis.
P. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.
R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.
P. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Here rise and kneel on the lowermost step of the Altar.

P. Kyrie eleison. R. Kyrie eleison
P. Kyrie eleison.
P. Dominus vobiscum ; or, Flectamus genua.
R. Et cum spiritu tuo ; or, Levate.
P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. R. Amen.

At the end of the Epistle say, Deo gratias, and rise to be ready as soon as the gradual and Alleluia, or Tract has been read, to remove the missal to the Gospel side of the altar, and there placing it, turned a little towards the middle, return to the opposite, or Epistle side ; kneel, and make a low reverence as you pass the middle of the altar ; then stand up in your place whilst the Gospel is read.

P. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.
P. Sequentia sancti Evangeli, &c.

Here make the sign of the cross ; first, upon your forehead ; secondly, upon your mouth ; thirdly, upon your breast ; and say, Gloria tibi Domine. At the end of the Gospel, say,

R. Laus tibi, Christe,
P. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Going to the middle of the altar, kneel and make a reverence, then proceed to the credence table, and prepare the wine and water ; present them to the Priest, making a reverence; afterwards pour water on the Priest's fingers, present him with a towel, and return to your place at the Epistle side of the altar

P. Orate fratres, &c.

R. Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque ecclesiæ suæ sanctæ.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. R. Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Sursum corda R. Habemus ad Dominum.

P. Gratias agamus Domino Deo nostro.

R. Dignum et justum est.

When the Priest says, Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, ring the bell each time.

When the Priest spreads his hands over the chalice, ring the bell, and then proceed to the centre of the altar, where, kneeling whilst the Priest elevates the host and chalice, ring the bell with your right, and hold up the vestment with your left hand. After the elevation, return to your former place, and as often as you pass by the blessed Sacrament adore on your knees.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. R. Amen.

P. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.

R. Sed libera nos a malo.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. R. Amen.

P. Pax Domini sit semper vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

When the Priest says Domine non sum dignus, with your head bent ring the bell each time he pronounces those words. When the Priest has received the chalice, serve him with wine only; on his presenting the chalice again, serve him with wine and water. Remove the missal to the Epistle side of the altar, and retire to your place on the Gospel side.

P. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. R. Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Ite, missa est; or Benedicamus Domino.

R. Deo gratias.

NOTE.—In Masses for the Dead, the Priest says,

P. Requiescant in pace. R. Amen.

Remove the missal, if left open, to the Gospel side of the altar; then kneel before the centre of the altar, and receive the Priest's blessing.

P. Pater et Filius, et Spiritus Sanctus. R. Amen.

Then rise, and stand during the Gospel.

P. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Initium, (or, Sequentia) sancti Evangelii secundum, &c.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

At the end of the Gospel, say

R. Deo gratias.
